Job Description :

Regional Educational Lead - Northern (Part-Time Term, 0.2 EFT)
Department of Family Medicine
Rady Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Manitoba
Position # 34843

The University of Manitoba (UM) invites applications for a part-time (0.2 EFT, 8 hours/week) Northern Regional Educational Lead, for a 2-year term, within the Department of Family Medicine. The part-time position is $35,329 per annum.

Responsibilities :

The Department of Family Medicine provides a two-year residency training program in family medicine, with residents choosing from several learning streams. An additional third year is located at the University's Bannatyne Campus, although teaching occurs at sites across the province.

The Northern Regional Educational Lead is responsible for ensuring educational programming that occurs at the relevant sites conforms to the standards and policies set by the Postgraduate Committee. Northern sites include Northern Remote and Thompson.

This individual will work closely with the Education Directors within the respective stream. The incumbent will also work with the Postgraduate Education Associate Program Director and meets the requirements of The College of Family Physicians of Canada and is conducted in a manner that is consistent with the mission of the Department of Family Medicine and its Residency Program.

Qualifications :

- Certified with the College of Family Physicians of Canada (CCFP) and current membership in the College of Family Physicians of Canada (CFPC)
- Holds a full license from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Manitoba
- Previous teaching experience in undergraduate or postgraduate Family Medicine
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills appropriate to dealing with individuals from a variety of backgrounds
- Interest in medical education administration

Additional Information :

The University of Manitoba is committed to the principles of equity, diversity & inclusion and to promoting opportunities in hiring, promotion and tenure (where applicable) for systemically the University and the larger community including Indigenous Peoples, women, racialized persons, persons with disabilities and those who identify as 2SLGBTQIA+ (Two Spirit, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and other diverse sexual identities). All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.

The Rady Faculty of Health Sciences is committed to the social justice principles of equity, access & participation and to promoting opportunities in hiring, promotion and tenure (where applicable) for the University and the larger community including Indigenous Peoples, Black, racially marginalized communities, disabled persons and those who identify as 2SLGBTQIA+ (Two Spirit, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and other diverse sexual identities).

An inclusive, open and diverse community is essential to excellence and fosters voices that have been ignored or discouraged. To address the Rady Faculty of Health Sciences commitment to the underrepresentation of members of historically and currently excluded groups, we take proactive measures including implicit bias training for all hiring panels. We strive for diversity and inclusion in all hiring panels, interviews, and evaluations. The University acknowledges the potential impact that Career Interruptions and Personal Circumstances can have on an applicant's record of research achievement and encourages careful consideration during the evaluation process.

We encourage you to self-identify aspects of your identity that position you to bring currently under-represented viewpoints, expertise and forms of excellence to this role.
